

Blastwave FX Announces New Sound Effects Library Feature: Free Updates for Life

Free Updates to Include New Sound Effects, Metadata and Search Software

Detroit, Michigan, October 1, 2009 – Blastwave FX (www.blastwavefx.com), the HD sound effects label, has announced that all of its sound effects hard drives will now feature Free Updates for Life in the form of new sound effects, metadata and search software. Owners of SONOPEDIA™, The BLASTDRIVE, TITLEWAVE and .wavFX will receive free updates every 3 months delivered via download from the Blastwave FX website.

Blastwave FX is using the term Comprehensive Lifetime Sound Design Solutions (CLSDS) to describe sound effects libraries that feature Free Updates for Life. This ensures that a user's library continually expands, serves as a growing lifetime sonic resource and ensures that the latest in Blastwave FX sound effects, metadata and search is always one mouse click away.

“The Comprehensive Lifetime Sound Design Solutions platform is a first in the sound library industry,” says Ric Viers of Blastwave FX. “Most older libraries are outdated and static and many of our new clients tell us they haven't updated their sound effects libraries in decades. Free Updates for Life shows our commitment to our clients by adding more value in their investment and, ultimately creating excitement with products that keep growing!”

All Comprehensive Lifetime Sound Design Solutions feature high definition sound effects on hard drive, the Blastwave FX Search Engine (MAC/PC), Free Updates For Life and include the following libraries:

- The BLASTDRIVE – Colossal Anthology of Entire Blastwave Catalog ($5999 | 31,700 sound effects & production elements)
- SONOPEDIA- the Encyclopedia of HD Sound Effects ($3999 | 20,000 sound effects)
- TITLEWAVE- Production Elements Hard Drive ($2999 | 11,700 production elements)
- .wavFX- definitive HD sound effects & production elements suite ($1199 | 3,000 sound effects & production elements)
