

Blastwave FX Releases First Sound Effects Hard Drive Update for SDS Libraries

Detroit, MI – February 4, 2010: True to their promise, Blastwave FX has released new additional sound effects to update the SDS libraries SONOPEDIA, The BLASTDRIVE, .wavFX, and TITLEWAVE.

“With our first high definition sound effects update to our hard drive libraries, our Comprehensive Sound Design Solutions (SDS) are proving their lifetime value,” says Ric Viers of Blastwave FX.

Blastwave FX continues to deliver a first in the sound library industry - Comprehensive Lifetime Sound Design Solutions (SDS) delivered on Glyph GT 050Q drives that feature high definition sound effects, the Blastwave FX Search Engine, and Free Updates for Life.

All SDS Libraries, including SONOPEDIA, The BLASTDRIVE, .wavFX and TITLEWAVE have the following features:

- Royalty-Free Sound Effects and Production Elements: Buy once - use for a lifetime.
- High Definition Sounds Recorded at 24/96: the most contemporary and useful sounds captured with advanced high definition recording techniques.
- Search Software: search, audition, drag n' drop into applications such as Pro Tools, AVID, Final Cut Pro and more.
- Free Updates for Life: Brand new sounds every three months, search software updates, all downloadable.
- Multiple File Formats: broadcast .wav files (24/96, 24/48, 16/44.1) & mp3 all with embedded metadata.
- Glyph 3 Year Warranty: 3 year coverage, 2 year first-level data recovery, 1 year overnight advance replacement on all registered products.

Whether in film, television, radio, or video games, editors can have everything they need, when they need it, to complete their productions.
